We cordially invite you to the press preview of the exhibition “Preis der Nationalgalerie 2024. Pan Daijing, Dan Lie, Hanne Lippard and James Richards” and “Endless Exhibition. Claudia Wieser” on Tuesday, June 4, 2024, 11 am at Hamburger Bahnhof.

Pan Daijing, Dan Lie, Hanne Lippard and James Richards are awarded the Preis der Nationalgalerie, which, in 2024, is going to four artists for the first time. The new format of the prize takes up the idea of the exhibition as a collective exchange and aims to expand the collection through the purchase of four new pieces. The group exhibition at Hamburger Bahnhof shows the four new works in interplay. Parallel Hamburger Bahnhof presents the new contribution by Claudia Wieser for the „Endless Exhibition“. With Wieser’s installation the site specific exhibition in and around the museum counts 20 art works, which are part of the collection. The exhibitions open on Friday June 7, with three admission-free open days (Friday, June 7 - Sunday, June 9, 2024) and the start of the second edition of the open-air DJ series "Berlin Beats" with Oda Haliti.

The Preis der Nationalgalerie is made possible by Freunde der Nationalgalerie and supported by BMW. The acquisition of the artworks is facilitated by Riller & Schnauck, BMW partner in Berlin. The "Endless Exhibition" is a project realised by Hamburger Bahnhof with the kind support of Peppermint and the Freunde der Nationalgalerie.

In attendance:
